Increase in Customs Duties to Help Local Cos: Ramdev

Says his ambition is to outsell global consumer giants Unilever & P&G

Rasul Bhatia & Shambhavi Anand

New Delhi: Baba Ramdev, the public face and brand ambassador for herbal-focused consumer firm Patanjali, on Wednesday welcomed the increase in customs levies on food items and personal care products, arguing that the Budget decision will help the local industry in its battle for market share against multinational companies.

Patanjali has expanded rapidly, prompting established giants to ramp up their herbal or natural products portfolio.

"It is a good thing. The increase in customs duty will encourage Swadeshi, and every country should do it to protect their local businesses," Ramdev told ET. "It is necessary and I am in agreement with it."

The Yoga guru, whose company now makes and retails food and consumer items, expressed his ambition to outsell global consumer giants Unilever and P&G.

"We will beat Unilever (in India) next year," Ramdev said. "Unilever is around ₹50,000 crore in revenues at present and we will surpass that next year. By 2025, Patanjali will, perhaps, be the world's biggest FMCG company."

Baba Ramdev

He had earlier forecast that revenue would double in FY18. Last fiscal year, Patanjali reported about ₹10,500 crore of revenue.

Last week, Unilever CEO Paul Polman said during an investor call on the December quarter earnings that India remains a bright spot for the Anglo-Dutch firm. "In terms of the countries, specifically where we see pick-ups, we see India getting better," he had told investors.

Dabbawalas Join Hands with Paytm

ANI

New Delhi: Paytm Payments Bank, a digital bank which provides zero balance accounts and zero charges on digital transactions, partnered with the Mumbai Dabbawala Association, the pioneers of home-cooked food delivery.

As part of this association, around 5,000 dabbawalas will now be able to collect instant payments for their dabbas service through Paytm QR. Additionally, they will also avail an easy access to banking and other financial services by opening their bank accounts with Paytm Payments Bank.

Dabbawalas can avail personalised banking by walking into banking outlets 'Paytm Ka ATM' for cash deposits and withdrawals and earn 4% in their savings account and up to 8.05% in wealth management accounts. These specially branded outlets will play a key role in bringing banking access by ensuring customers find it easy to locate an access point near them.

"Mumbai dabbawalas have earned global recognition for their impeccable world-class supply chain management. We are glad to simplify payments for their strong network with our Paytm QR and also provide banking services," said Renu Sahil, MD, Paytm Payments Bank.

Tata Housing CEO Resigns

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Binay Banerjee, MD & CEO of Tata Housing Development Company has resigned from the company citing 'personal reasons'. On Monday, ET was first to report that Banerjee is about to put in his papers.

While the company is scouting for his replacement, Banerjee would be overseeing the transition along with Binodini Agrawala, president, infrastructure and defence & aerospace business. Banerjee is expected to serve a six-month notice period.

"Options are open," Banerjee told ET while confirming his resignation in the internal communication, a copy of which is with ET. Tata Housing's chairman S Santhoshkrishnan assured the staff that the company will continue to serve the customers and meet of their expectations along with the growth agenda of Tata Housing.

On Monday, ET had reported that certain projects and complaints are being reviewed by the management. Established in 1984 and revived in late 2006, Tata Housing was one of the first forays by a large Indian business house into real estate and has a portfolio of around 20 million sq ft under construction projects.

Banerjee joined the Tata Group's housing arm as deputy CEO in 2005 and was promoted as MD and CEO in 2008, making him one of the youngest CEOs in Tata Group's history. Known for spearheading the company's foray into affordable and low-cost housing in 2008, Banerjee had joined Tata Administrative Services (TAS) in 1988. Leading Tata Housing during the real estate slump, he was also instrumental in the company's digital efforts to sell homes.

SpiceJet Q3 Net Soars 68%

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Low-fare carrier SpiceJet on Wednesday posted its 12th straight quarter of net profit, up 68% on year, on the back of a robust operating performance. It posted a net profit of ₹280 crore for the three months ended December 31, 2017, as against ₹161.4 crore in the same quarter last year. Operating income grew 27% to ₹2,955.1 crore and fuel costs grew 32% to ₹403 crore. "The strong quarterly results were aided by a higher passenger load factor and a healthy increase in passenger yields despite a substantial rise of 17% in crude oil prices, a one-time expense of ₹25 crore and an inflationary increase of 2% in other costs. It witnessed a 14% increase in its passenger yields (Revenue per Available Seat Kilometer) while its average domestic load factor was 95%.
