Grievance Redressal Machinery

12. Informal Grievance Redressal : Informal processes involve an intermediary means for resolving a problem. In the case of Sexual Harassment, at first instance, the person (i.e. HOD, SBU

Head / HR / Woman representative of the location) may be the point of first contact for anyone seeking informal support/intervention to stop unwelcome behaviour. Benefits of an informal process are:

- (a) It is consistent with the preventive approach.
- (b) It helps to diffuse a minor incident without diluting as also escalating the problem.
- (c) Often people just want unwelcome behaviour to stop without drawing undue attention; an informal process makes this option more possible.
- (d) It involves employees to share in the responsibility of eliminating unwelcome behaviour at work. A sense of restraint and responsibility on the part of all concerned is critical for the effective functioning of these guidelines.

13. The preventive / informal process that can be adopted is as follows:

- (a) Convey to the person who is the cause of distress, about what that person's actions, words, behaviour is doing and convey in no uncertain terms that such behaviour is not appreciated.
- (b) The second step would be to approach someone within the company – preferably your Superior or HR Representative. The Superior or HR Representative would then try and counsel / talk it over with a view towards closing the matter amicably.
- (c) In any case all such incidents along with the resolution, needs to be reported to the Head of HR who will then provide a short report to the Internal Complaints Committee and the matter will be closed.
- (d) However, in the event of it not being resolved, then it would need to be escalated to the Internal Complaints Committee.

14. Formal Grievance Redressal : In the event of the complaint not being resolved through informal mechanism, then it would need to be escalated to the Internal Complaint Committee for redressal.

(a) The aggrieved woman may make, in writing, a complaint of sexual harassment at the workplace to the Internal Committee, within a period of three months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of three months from the date of the last incident. The Internal Complaints Committee will render reasonable assistance to women for making the complaints in writing. This time limit may further be extended for 3 months if the complaints committee is satisfied that there were circumstances that prevented the woman from filing a complaint within the specified timeline. If the aggrieved woman is unable to file a complaint due to physical/mental incapacity or death or for any other reasons, the complaint can be filed by her legal heir or her relative or friend or her co-worker or an officer of the National Commission for Women or State Women's Commission or any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of the aggrieved woman.

(b) A member of the Internal Complaint Committee would then hold an investigation and give a report to the Internal Complaint Committee.

(c) The Committee, before initiating the inquiry at the request of the aggrieved woman, will take steps to settle the matter between her and the respondent through mutual settlement, provided that no monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of settlement. Wherever such settlement has been arrived, the internal committee shall record it and send the same to the CMD to take action as per recommendation. Once such settlement has been arrived at no further enquiry shall be conducted by the Internal Complaint Committee. Where the matter is settled through mutual settlement, the Internal Complaints Committee must send copies of the records of such settlement to the aggrieved woman and the respondent.

(d) The Committee, while investigating the complaint referred to it, will call upon both the parties separately, listen, look at proof (if any), verify documents produced by the parties, allow the parties to produce witnesses and to put forth their say. Both the parties during the course of enquiry are given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) At the end of the investigation, the Secretary of the Committee shall prepare a report of findings on the complaint and submit it to the Chairperson of the Committee. The findings of the report should be made available to the respondent and aggrieved woman within 10 working days from the date of completion of enquiry.

(f) The Chairperson of the Committee shall ensure that the complaint is attended to within 10 working days after receiving it and that the investigations are completed within 30 working days.

(g) During the pendency of an inquiry, on a written request made by the aggrieved woman, the committee may recommend to the HR, to

(i) Transfer the aggrieved woman or person accused to any other location of work.

(ii) Grant leave to the aggrieved woman up to the period of 3 months (over and above the entitled leave).

(iii) Grant such other relief to the aggrieved woman as may be prescribed

(h) The Chairperson after studying the report & discussion with the Committee members shall submit her recommendation to the CMD within 10 days of completing the inquiry.

(i) The implementation of the recommendation of Internal Complaint Committee and as approved by CMD should be done within 30 days of receipt of such recommendation.

15. Action against the Accused : Pursuant to a finding of Sexual Harassment by the Committee against any person accused of the same, the Committee may initiate any one or more of the following actions:

- (a) Actions in accordance with misconduct mentioned in service rules /appointment letter.
- (b) Issue a verbal warning
- (c) Issue a warning in writing
- (d) Issue a suspension letter
- (e) Deprived of increment or promotion
- (f) To deduct, notwithstanding anything in the service rules applicable, from the salary or wages of the accused person such sum as it may considered appropriate to be paid to the aggrieved woman
- (g) Order dismissal depending upon the severity & sensitivity of the incident
- (h) Financial Penalty (In accordance with the mental, physical trauma, loss of career opportunity, medical expenses) in lump sum or in instalments.

16. In case the Internal Complaints Committee on conclusion of the enquiry finds that the allegation was malicious or has made the complaints knowing it to be false, or has produced any forged / misleading document, it will recommend action to be taken against the woman who has made the complaint. In all such cases the malicious intent on the part of the woman must be established before any action is recommended.

17. The Internal Complaints Committee will protect the identity of all individuals involved during the process, including the aggrieved woman and respondent and contents of complaints and enquiry proceedings.

18. Guidelines for members of Grievance Redressal Machinery:

- (a) Believe in the reality of the complaint lodged.
- (b) Empathize with the complainant. Do not function like a criminal court.
- (c) Remember that it may be difficult for an employee to talk about anything 'sexual'. Hence there can be a long time interval between the harassment and the actual complaint.
- (d) Handle complaints in a confidential manner and within 30 working days.
- (e) The Internal Complaints Committee is required to prepare an annual report in each calendar year and submit the same to the employer/management.
- (f) Maintain all the data related to sexual harassment cases in the company
- (g) Provide safety for the complainant and his / her supporters, if such a need be felt and that the committee can recommend action against persons indulging in intimidation of the complainant or witness to a complaint.
- (h) Discard pre-determined notions of how an accused should look or behave or dress. Be aware of stereotypes.
- (i) Do not insist on detailed description of harassment. This could increase the complainant's trauma.
- (j) Since this is a human rights issue, balance of probabilities is a sufficient measure of proof.
- (k) Help the complainant regain his / her self-respect.

(l) Make 'discreet' enquiries as to whether other employees have experienced similar problems.

(m) Document results of any sexual harassment complaint or investigation. Not only the results, but also document any corrective action that the employee or supervisor was asked to take.

(n) Inform all employees that it is their obligation to report sexual harassment that they either experience or witness.

19. Please Note that The Internal Complaints Committee will not entertain any anonymous complaints.

Conclusion

20. The decision of Company shall be final and binding on all. However, the same is without prejudice to any recourse that Company or the individual concerned may have against the respondent and it shall not limit or restrict the rights of the Complainant and/or Company to pursue, nor shall they be precluded from pursuing, such further and other legal actions as may be available.

21. Any thing which is not covered in the above policy would be dealt in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013 enacted by the Parliament and Rules framed thereon from time to time.
